

2 February 2015

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

QUEST PAYMENT SYSTEMS ANNOUNCES NEW CEO

MELBOURNE – 2 February 2015

Australian payments technology manufacturer, QUEST PAYMENT SYSTEMS PTY LTD (www.questpaymentsystems.com), today announced the appointment of Miss Jan Mason as Chief Executive Officer effective February 1, 2015, replacing company founder and CEO/Chairman, Mr Andrew Graham.

Miss Mason joined Quest in March 2013 as General Manager following a long and successful career with the National Australia Bank Group.

“Miss Mason’s appointment draws on her many years’ experience within the banking industry; she brings to the role significant leadership skill, along with a sound understanding of the Australian and international payments’ landscapes.

As Quest expands both locally and internationally, Jan is well placed to continue the company’s development of leading edge payments technology. I am delighted that Jan has accepted the appointment”, Mr Graham said.

Mr Graham will remain as company Chairman.

ABOUT QUEST PAYMENT SYSTEMS PTY LTD

With headquarters in Melbourne, Quest is an Australian owned technology company providing a diverse and innovative range of end-to-end payment solutions to businesses and financial institutions, both locally and abroad. As the country’s leading full-service payment solution supplier, delivering Australia’s only locally designed and manufactured range of payment terminal hardware, Quest delivers both mass market and custom solutions drawing on over twenty years of development expertise. Quest’s portfolio of solutions include fixed line and mobile payment terminal hardware, software, gift card and online payment solutions, EMV smartcard, contactless, communications and transaction routing solutions as well as bespoke hardware and software design, professional consulting and manufacturing services.

MEDIA ENQUIRIES

Damien Halloran
Director Sales and Marketing
Quest Payment Systems
Tel: +61 3 8807 4400
Email: damielh@questps.com.au
www.questpaymentsystems.com

